CITY OF CHATTANOOGA MUNICIPAL ELECTION

ORDINANCE NO. 11590

Shall Ordinance No. 11590 to amend the Charter of the City of Chattanooga, Tennessee be approved so as to require two readings of all Ordinances rather than three. Said Ordinance provides in pertinent part: SECTION 1. That the present Charter of the City of Chattanooga, and all Acts and Ordinances amendatory thereof, be and is hereby further amended as follows: That Section 11.2, which currently provides:

Sec. 11.2. Required readings; subject matter.

No ordinance shall be valid unless passed on three (3) separate readings after an opportunity for free discussion thereof; however, this prohibition shall not apply to a motion, a motion in the nature of a resolution, or a resolution not having the force and effect of an ordinance, and such motions and resolutions shall be effective upon passage by city council. No ordinance shall be valid if passed on the first and final reading on the same day. This section shall not apply to a franchise ordinance. No ordinance of any kind shall be invalid if it should embrace more than one (1) subject. All resolutions heretofore passed by the city which were motions in the nature of a resolution, or were resolutions not having the force and effect of an ordinance, are hereby validated notwithstanding they were passed and executed after one (1) reading. (Priv. Acts 1901, Ch. 432, § 9; Priv. Acts 1911, Ch. 10, §§ 13, 15; Priv. Acts 1969, Ch. 82, § 3) be and is hereby amended by striking there from the word and figure "three (3)" and substituting in lieu thereof the word and figure "two (2)".

Certification of the Chief Financial Officer:

The proposed provision requiring two readings instead of three for city ordinances will have no financial impact upon the City. David R. Eichenthal, Finance Officer, City of Chattanooga

ORDINANCE NO. 11591

Shall Ordinance No. 11591 to amend the Charter of the City of Chattanooga, Tennessee be approved so as to require certain information set forth in State law to be a part of the annual city budget. Said Ordinance provides in pertinent part: SECTION 1. That the present Charter of the City of Chattanooga, and all Acts and Ordinances amendatory thereof, be and is hereby further amended as follows: That a new Section 6.81 be enacted to provide as follows:

Sec. 6.81. Information to be a part of the annual budget.

The annual budget ordinance shall contain at least as much information as that required by Tennessee Code Annotated §6-56-203(1) and (3) as the same may be amended from time to time.

Certification of the Chief Financial Officer:

The proposed provision requiring certain information be a part of the annual budget could result in estimated current savings of approximately $14,000 annually. David R. Eichenthal, Finance Officer, City of Chattanooga

ORDINANCE NO. 11592

Shall Ordinance No. 11592 to Amend the Charter of the City of Chattanooga, Tennessee so as to provide that Ordinances shall take effect upon becoming law or at such subsequent time as the Council may designate. Said Ordinance provides in pertinent part: SECTION 1. That the present Charter of the City of Chattanooga, and all Acts and Ordinances amendatory thereof, be and is hereby further amended as follows: That Section 11.4, which currently provides:

Sec. 11.4. When ordinances take effect.

No ordinance passed by the city council, except an ordinance which the public peace, health or safety shall require to take effect immediately and which shall contain a statement of such urgency and be passed by a vote of more than five (5) of the city council, shall go into effect before two (2) weeks from its final passage. (Priv. Acts 1911, Ch. 15, § 3) (Paragraphs 4 and 21 of the Amended Plan appended to the Agreed Order, dated 1-18-90, in the case of Brown v. Board of Commissioners, U.S.D.C., No. CIV-1-87-388).

be and is hereby repealed and a new Section 11.4 be substituted in lieu thereof to state:

Sec. 11.4. When ordinances take effect.

Ordinances shall take effect upon becoming law or at such other and subsequent time as the Council may designate within the Ordinance.

Certification of the Chief Financial Officer:

The proposed provisions that ordinances take effect upon becoming law or at such subsequent time as the Council designate will have no financial impact upon the City. David R. Eichenthal, Finance Officer, City of Chattanooga
