City of Chattanooga Municipal	City Council Vote for Two (2)	City of Ridgeside Municipal
Charter Amendment Shall Ordinance No. 13344 to amend the Home Rule Charter of the City of Chattanooga be approved so as to add the following new Sections 4.1 through 4.3, which state as follows: ORDINANCE NO. 13344 (Summary) The City Charter currently states that the city court can hear criminal cases as well as municipal code violations, which are civil matters. The city court has not handled criminal cases in more than (20) years. This charter amendment removes the city court's criminal jurisdiction to conform to that court's current focus on municipal code violations, which are punishable by a maximum fine of fifty dollars ($50.00). The amendment deletes all references to criminal proceedings and punishments, as they are not applicable to the city court. Because municipal code violations are civil in nature, the amendment provides for appeals from the city court to be heard in circuit court rather than criminal court. The amendment further provides for court costs to be established by ordinance. Finally, the amendment removes archaic language such as references to workhouses, justices of the peace, and constables, which no longer exist in Chattanooga. This amendment reduces Sections 4.1 through 4.9 to three sections which are numbered 4.1 through 4.3. CERTIFICATION OF THE CHIEF FINANCE OFFICER The proposed amendment shall not have a material impact upon the City's finances. Dated: 8/13/2018 DAISY W. MADISON City Finance Officer	Jacky Cagle <input type="radio"/>	Commissioner Vote for Three (3)
