Organizational Chart for Tennessee Election Commissions Voters Tennessee General Assembly Members of the State Senate and State House of Representatives elect the Tennessee Secretary of State and the members of the Tennessee State Election Commission. Senators and Representatives also recommend appointments to their county Election Commissions to the State Election Commission. State Election Secretary of State Commission The State Election Commission is composed of five members, three from the Elected by the state General Assembly for a 4-year term, political party holding a majority of seats in the General Assembly and two the Tennessee Secretary of State's office oversees a wide from the minority party. These individuals are elected for a term of four range of government duties, including appointment of the State Election Coordinator. years. State Election Coordinator Appointed by Tennessee Secretary of State, the State Election Coordinator works with the Tennessee State Election Commission and county Election Commissions toward the common goal of maintaining uniformity in elections as well as preserving the purity of the ballot. Hamilton County Election Hamilton County Commission Commission Members of the Hamilton County Election Commission are recommended The Hamilton County has no direct by the General Assembly to the State Election Commission which, in turn, supervisory role over the Election makes the final appointment. The County Election Commission is composed Commission. However, the county of five members, three from the political party holding a majority of seats in government does fund the Election the General Assembly and two from the minority party. Appointments are Commission. made the first Monday in April of every odd-numbered year. Hamilton County Administrator of Elections Elected by the Hamilton County Election Commission, the Administrator of Elections is charged with overseeing the day-to-day duties of the Election

The Hamilton County Election Commission staff reports directly to the Hamilton County Administrator of Elections. Staff members perform the daily duties necessary to maintaining quality elections.

Commission staff.

Hamilton County Election
Commission Office Personnel